3. Organization of Student Body:

Each class attending the Academy is organised into a school battalion consisting of three batteries.

a. 1 School Battalion:

50X1-HUM

- b. 2 School Battalion:
 - (1) Commanding Officer, Lt. Colonel Velikovic;
 - (2) Political Commissar, Major Ivica,

50X1-HUM

- (a) I Battery: commanded by Captain Marko Kusmanovic;
- (b) 2 Battery: commanded by Lt. Markovic, in addition to his duties as an instructor in communications; and
- (c) 5 Battery: commanded by Lt. Nikola.

Transmich as activities at the Academy have been increased,
there are probably four battalions at the present time,
rather than the usual two.

4. Program of Instruction:

a. The Academy curriculum covers a two-year program of study. In addition to courses on political doctrine, the following subjects are maught:

Theory of ballistics;
Artillery firing;
Artillery tactics;
Artillery mechanics;
Topography;
Russian language;
Engineering;
Communications;
Driving horse-drawn vehicles;
Driving mechanized vehicles;
Chemical warfare;
Infantry-firing tactics; and Basic infantry drill.

b. the following artillery pieces were being used for

50X1-HUM

training purposes:

- (1) Soviet M-42, Zis-3, 76mm. anti-tank gun; and
- (2) Soviet M-42 122mm, howitzer.
- c. After each cadet has completed his course of study he is given a commission as a 2nd lieutement unless he already held a commission before entering the Academy. In the latter case he leaves the Academy holding the same rank he had when he entered, unless, of course, he was promoted during his tour of duty at the Academy.
